

Art Precinct 21 October - 23 October 2016

The Festival Committee is excited to announce the inaugural Art Precinct as a new addition to the 2016 Taste Coleambally - Food and Farm Festival.

There will be a range of exciting Artistic events over the Festival weekend, located at the Coleambally Community Hall and the surrounding grassed area at Kingfisher Ave, Coleambally.

The Art Precinct is highlighting the varied regional creative talent, also to discover new artists and to support established artists in Rural Australia.

Poets' Breakfast - 7.30am - 9.00am.

This will be followed by the Indigenous Welcome Dance. Cultural Workshops, Dance Classes and Indigenous Bush Tucker Expo.

Meet the Makers - The Festival invites regional artists to showcase and/or sell quality handmade original wares to create an interactive art space. Spectators will be able to watch varied artists at work, including photos, portfolios and works in progress. This is located on the grassed area at the Coleambally Community Hall, towards Kingfisher Ave. Artists are welcome to share their stories on the Festival website, Facebook and Instagram prior to and during the festival.

Open Mic - An opportunity for emerging creatives to perform in a casual environment. We welcome all performing Poets, Buskers and Dancers, to the front verandah of the hall. (Program details closer to the event).

Inviting all artists or creatives, to be involved in this opportunity to share your story and creative delights. All ages and media are welcome.

You can enter the Taste Art Prize, recite a poem at the Open Mic or display / sell your unique artistic wares at a Meet the Maker stall.
